Arielle S. Wagner

Arielle Strong Wagner concentrates her practice in the firm's antitrust, data breach, health care, and business practice groups. Arielle represents consumers, small businesses, and tribes in complex litigation throughout the United States. She plays a key role in plaintiff-side antitrust matters, including her work on the co-lead counsel team in the In re Pork Antitrust Litigation and on the discovery committee in the In re Generic Pharmaceuticals Pricing Antitrust Litigation.

Arielle currently serves as President of the Minnesota American Indian Bar Association, and as a Director on the Board of the National Native American Bar Association. She is passionate about issues related to diversity and inclusion in the legal industry and helps lead the firm's Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

Arielle is from the Lake Vermillion Reservation in Tower, Minnesota. She is an enrolled member of the Bois Forte Band of Chippewa in Northern Minnesota.
